Merry Christmas!

From Father Pieter

Greetings! Today the Christmas season ends. But you may ask: "why does Christmas end with Jesus' baptism, which took place almost 30 years after His birth?" Jesus' baptism shows us the goal of Christmas: Jesus came to make us sons and daughters of God by grace! Although He had no need of repentance, Jesus stands with sinners seeking baptism, just like He will one day bear the sins of all the world, in order to bring us into the life and love of the Trinity. At Mass this Sunday, let the Holy Spirit unite you with Jesus, as you offer your heart to the Father with Jesus' sacrifice of His Body and Blood.

What's Happening at St. Joseph?

Extraordinary Ministers: We have a great opportunity to bring Jesus in the Eucharist to those who cannot come to Mass—many already do this for their loved ones, but there is a need for volunteers who can bring the Eucharist to people in regional nursing homes and hospitals. If this sounds like a ministry you might be called to, consider coming to a special training at our parish next Saturday, January 17 at 9:30 am.

Exodus 90: Thanks to the men who have signed up for this journey together! Please pray for them and for all the men of our parish, that we might be holy men of God for our families, communities, and parish.

Fr. Pieter: I am happy to be with you today! Sorry I missed you last week! I was happy to get away for some days of rest (I celebrated Masses at a Caribbean parish without a regular priest! So I prayed and went scuba diving for a week!). Thank you for praying for me in my absence! I am happy to be back with you!

Catholic Education: Thank you for your generous donations of over $1300 for our need-based Catholic Education scholarships last week.
